FRIDAY, AUGUST 17, 1744.

Naples, July 28.

ALL Communication between this City and that of Rome is entirely ſuſpended, by the Poſition of the Army of Prince Lobkowitz. The Miniſtry affect to publiſh nothing of what paſſes either in Abruzzo, or in the Camp of Veletri. This Barrenneſs of News, at a Time when all the World is eager [illegible]t, occaſions Variety of Reports; nor is it poſſible to [illegible] which of them do, and which do not, deſerve Cre[illegible]

Amongſt other Things, it is ſaid by the Partizans [illegible] the Houſe of Auſtria, that, at the Inſtances of the [illegible]g and Queen of Poland, his Britannick Majeſty, and [illegible]Q. of Hungary, have agreed to a tacit Suſpenſion of [illegible]ns, till her Neapolitan Majeſty's Month is up; which, they, was the more readily agreed to, becauſe the [illegible]garian Party in this Kingdom is ſo ſtrong, that they [illegible]ble, at any time, to bring about a Revolution with [illegible]ry little Aſſiſtance. This Story is treated as ridicu[illegible]s by ſuch as are well affected to the Court; who at[illegible]bute the Inaction of Prince Lobkowitz to his Diſ[illegible]greement with the Queen of Hungary's Miniſter at [illegible]ome, his Diſappointments in this Kingdom, his Army's [illegible]ng exceſſively weaken'd by Sickneſs and Deſertion, [illegible]d his being in great Want of Proviſions; but our [illegible]ſagacious Politicians reject both theſe Accounts with equal [illegible]contempt. The Secret, ſay they, of Prince Lobko[illegible]witz's remaining quiet in his Camp, is this; there is a [illegible]Treaty on Foot between the Queen of Hungary and the [illegible]King of the Two Sicilies, under the Mediation of the [illegible]King of Poland, which is on the Point of being con[illegible]cluded. By this Treaty, the Neutrality is to be reviv'd, [illegible]th Spaniards are to be declar'd Troops in the Pay of [illegible]the King of the Two Sicilies, and, conſequently, bound [illegible]to obſerve the Neutrality; which will give Prince Lob[illegible]kowitz an Opportunity of marching to the Aſſiſtance [illegible]of the King of Sardinia. The Reinforcement we re[illegible]ceiv'd lately from Spain, conſiſted of 4500 Men, all old [illegible]Troops; Cloaths, Arms, and Accoutrements for 2000 [illegible]Horſe; and 50,000 Pieces of Eight in Silver; all which [illegible]were embark'd in 47 Sciambecques from Majorca.

Hagenau, Auguſt 14. There happened Yeſterday at [illegible]Weme, an Affair of a good deal more Importance than [illegible]that in the beginning of the Month. It will be told, no [illegible]doubt, after different Ways; but the following Account [illegible]may be depended upon, as agreeable to Truth in every [illegible]reſpect. The Auſtrians believed they were Maſters of [illegible]the Paſſes, but they were miſtaken; for Yeſterday [illegible]morning the Duke de Harcourt, having either avoided, [illegible]or forced a Paſſage thro' their Works, between Phaltz[illegible]burg and Saverne, advanced with ſome Thouſand Men [illegible]towards the laſt mentioned Place. General Nadaſti, who [illegible]had about three or 4000 Men in Saverne, underſtanding [illegible]the three or four times his Number were advancing to [illegible]attack him, very wiſely quitted the Town, and drew [illegible]up to receive them in the Plain that lies behind it. He [illegible]here defended himſelf from Morning till Three o'Clock [illegible]in the Afternoon, after the Huſſar Manner of Fighting; [illegible]and, by that time, General Berenclau came up with the [illegible]Flower of the Hungarian Troops, and charged the French [illegible]ſo vigorouſly, that, at the firſt Shot, they broke, and [illegible]put them to flight. After this ſhort Diſpute was over, [illegible]they preſented themſelves before Saverne; and the Croats [illegible]and Pandours having taken it a ſecond Time, Sword in [illegible]Hand, cut to Pieces 1500 French that were there; [illegible]which, they ſay, is by Way of Reprizal, the French [illegible]having refuſed their Countrymen Quarter at the Buſineſs [illegible]of Weiſſenberg. The Duke de Harcourt is ſtill at Phaltz[illegible]burg with his Troops; and General Nadaſti is re-eſta[illegible]bliſhed in his Poſt at Saverne.

Metz, Auguſt 8. The Inhabitants of this City diſtin[illegible]guiſhed themſelves in an extraordinary Manner on the [illegible]King's Arrival. There were 4000 of the Burghers under [illegible]Arms, all uniformly cloathed in Blue, with Gold Buttons [illegible]and Button-holes; and before them march'd two Troops [illegible]of Horſe, each of 100 Men, dreſs'd in Scarlet, trim'd [illegible]with Gold. The Jews out-did the reſt of the Inhabitants; [illegible]for when his Majeſty paſſed by their Quarter, they ſent [illegible]12 Deputies, to deſire he would accept of a Melon; which [illegible]being granted, another Deputy advanc'd, and laid it at [illegible]the King's Feet. This Melon was of Gold, curiouſly [illegible]wrought; the Stem of it Emeralds, intermix'd with [illegible]Diamonds; when open'd, the Pulp was ſupplied by Ru[illegible]bies, and the Seeds by Rows of Brilliants; ſo that, as it lay open, it made a prodigious Shew. It is ſaid, the [illegible]Fabricating of this Melon, and the Materials, coſt the [illegible]Jews 10,000 Piſtoles.

From the Head Quarters of the Dutch Troops between Liſle and Tournay, Auguſt 16, 1744.

On the 10th of this Month the Engliſh and Hanoverians paſs'd the Marque, and join'd the Army. On the 11th a Detachment of 6000 Men, from all the Regiments, was made for the Guard of the Scheld, under the Command of Brigadier Count Schlippenbach. The ſame Day, we heard a prodigious firing of Cannon at Liſle, for two Hours together. We apprehend, that 4000 Huſſars were endeavouring to lodge themſelves in the Suburbs; and that the French made this terrible Fire, in order to hinder them. On the 12th our Left Wing was but a League and half from that City; and the Head Quarters of the whole Army three Leagues. On the 13th the Huſſars carried to Duke Aremberg's Quarters, nine Troopers, and four French Pandours. An Auſtrian Huſſar attempted, the ſame Day, to deſert; but his Brother-in-Law purſued, and overtook him at the very Gates of Liſle, and brought him back to the Camp; where he was immediately hang'd. On the 14th our General went to reconnoitre the Ground before Liſle; and the ſame Day all the Trees were cut down that obſtructed our View of the Place. On the 15th there was a general Review; our Troops are actually encamp'd at Pont à Bouſines; the Chatellains of Liſle and Valenciennes have begun to pay Contributions. The Peaſants complain exceſſively of the Engliſh, who plunder unmercifully; Count Saxe is at preſent behind his Lines.

Hague, Auguſt 22. The Baron de Reiſchah received, two Days ago, an Expreſs from his Court, with the important News, that the Nobility of Hungary had unanimouſly reſolved to raiſe a freſh Army of 60,000 Men, under the Command of the Field-Marſhal Count Palfi, Palatine of that Kingdom. Mr. Trevor conferr'd with their High Mightineſſes on the 19th, and preſented a Memorial from his Britannick Majeſty, which makes a great Noiſe here. In this Memorial, his Majeſty declares, that he looks upon the firm and ſincere Friendſhip of their High Mightineſſes, as the moſt ſolid Support of his Throne, next to the Fidelity of his loyal Subjects; adding, that he flatters himſelf, that the States General would effectually, and without delay, employ all their Forces by Sea and Land, in Conjunction with thoſe of his Majeſty, for procuring an honourable, juſt, and ſolid Peace. A Copy of this Memorial has been tranſmitted to each of the Provinces, accompanied with a Letter from the States General, recommending it to their ſerious Conſideration, in the moſt pathetic Terms. We have certain Intelligence from the Auſtrian Netherlands, that the French are drawing together 15,000 Men in the Neighbourhood of Dunkirk; that the Marſhal Count de Saxe has been reinforced with the like Number of old Troops; and that, on the 16th, he was advanc'd, with his Army, within a League of Oudenard.
